Dear Mr. Kidaha,

Thank you for your recent letter regarding the July visit of President Barack Obama and your request for a meeting with the President.

I, too, very much look forward to the President's historic visit and to watching his interactions with the great people of Kenya. As you might imagine, many of your fellow Kenyans have also expressed an interest in doing something special for or with the President. We will relay these offers to the President's team for its review and final decision. We will be in touch if there is any further response.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,
